Target Audience: School Library Media Specialist and Social Studies Educators

Workshop Objective: The focus of the workshop will be to provide educators the opportunity to meet, learn and explore the rich and various Western New York cultural resources that enhance curriculum and global citizenship for educators and learners. While this workshop is a follow-up to the Fall Social Studies PD, all interested participants are encouraged to register.

9:00- 10:00 AM Keynote, Gregory L. Peterson is a partner at Phillips Lytle LLP and Co-Founder of the Robert H. Jackson Center <https://www.roberthjackson.org/>

Keynote Topic: The importance of cultural institutions in education and experiences of developing and opening the Robert H. Jackson Center in Jamestown, NY.

Mr. Peterson is the Co-Founder of the Robert H. Jackson Center [<https://www.roberthjackson.org/>] and is a Past President of the Board of Directors. He continues to serve on the Board of Directors of the center.

10:00-10:15AM Morning Break

10:15-11:00 AM Presenter, Heidi Bamford from the Western New York Library Resource Council will be focusing on searching and using New York Heritage and the New York State Historic Newspaper websites to incorporate local history in the C3 Framework - or it can be more generally, how to locate and use materials from these sites for classroom learning.

11:00- 12:00 PM- Overview of Cultural Exhibitors

12:00 - 1:00 PM Lunch Provided

1:00 - 2:15 PM- Additional time for Cultural Exhibit Walk or Worktime

This timeframe will be devoted to either exploring the variety of cultural and local museum opportunities or librarians and teacher partners will have time to build relationships and develop resources that can be used in the classroom, to scaffold supporting questions for Social Studies inquiries, projects, or informed action.

2:15 - 2:30 PM Wrap up

If you have a mobile device, please bring it as we will have wireless and some of the presentations will include tech integration. We will also have laptops for those who do not bring them.
